ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Joan Blond regards herself as a contemporary, abstract expressionist artist who is inspired by the Australian landscape. Based in the Yarra Valley, Victoria, Joan is mostly self-taught and her creative side was nurtured as a child by her mother who shared her love of drawing and painting.

Since returning to painting after working in law for 25 years, Joan has had four solo exhibitions and shown in numerous group shows. Her work has also featured in popular magazines such as Home Beautiful and House & Garden and in 2018, in the TV series The Block.

“I find great fulfilment in delivering work that brings about emotions of happiness and excitement to those whom own and view my art. My work is a journey, ever evolving with continuous growth.”
